LASOP Fall Slide Seminar

UCLA Medical Center
November 2006
Case 1:
59 year old female with a solitary 2.0 cm breast lesion

Low power
Case 1:
59 year old female with a solitary 2.0 cm breast lesion
To see the diagnosis,
move to the next page
Case 1 Diagnosis:
Myofibroblastoma
Case 2:
63 year old male with sudden onset of dysarthria. Left frontal lobe mass.
Case 2:
63 year old male with sudden onset of dysarthria. Left frontal lobe mass.
To see the diagnosis,
move to the next page
Case 2 Diagnosis:
Anaplastic Oligodendroglioma
(WHO III)
Case 3:

26 year old male with pigmented neoplasm on right buttock with 10 months growth.
Case 3:

26 year old male with pigmented neoplasm on right buttock with 10 months growth.
Case 3:

26 year old male with pigmented neoplasm on right buttock with 10 months growth.
Case 3:

26 year old male with pigmented neoplasm on right buttock with 10 months growth.

200x Center
Case 3:

26 year old male with pigmented neoplasm on right buttock with 10 months growth.

200x Periphery
Case 3:

26 year old male with pigmented neoplasm on right buttock with 10 months growth.

400x Deep
To see the diagnosis,
move to the next page
Case 3 Diagnosis:
Malignant Blue Nevus
Case 4:

49 year old male with several month history of a slowly-growing, non-tender, firm, erythematous, 1.2 cm nodule in the mid back. No fevers, chills or myalgia. The clinical impression was keloid.
Case 4:

49 year old male with several month history of a slowly-growing, non-tender, firm, erythematous, 1.2 cm nodule in the mid back. No fevers, chills or myalgia. The clinical impression was keloid.
Case 4:
49 year old male with several month history of a slowly-growing, non-tender, firm, erythematous, 1.2 cm nodule in the mid back. No fevers, chills or myalgia. The clinical impression was keloid.
Case 4:

49 year old male with several month history of a slowly-growing, non-tender, firm, erythematous, 1.2 cm nodule in the mid back. No fevers, chills or myalgia. The clinical impression was keloid.
To see the diagnosis,
move to the next page
Case 4 Diagnosis:
Rosai-Dorfman Disease
Case 5:
84 year old male with anemia, weight loss, skin rash, and monoclonal gammopathy.
Case 5:

84 year old male with anemia, weight loss, skin rash, and monoclonal gammopathy.
Case 5:
84 year old male with anemia, weight loss, skin rash, and monoclonal gammopathy.
To see the diagnosis,
move to the next page
Case 5 Diagnosis:
Systemic Mastocytosis
Case 6:
36 year-old female with bilateral adnexal masses.
Case 6:
36 year-old female with bilateral adnexal masses.
Case 6:
36 year-old female with bilateral adnexal masses.
Case 6:
36 year-old female with bilateral adnexal masses.
Case 6:
36 year-old female with bilateral adnexal masses.
To see the diagnosis,
move to the next page
Case 6 Diagnosis:
Strumal Carcinoid in Mature Cystic Teratoma